

PRESENTS

Birds of Prey Live Presentation!

with noted wildlife rehabilitator, Tom Ricardi

Saturday, May 20th @ 10:00 am - 1:00 pm

Dexter Hall, Charlton Library

Family program - all ages are welcome to attend!
This event is free and open to the public.

Interactive activities focused on the outdoors and wildlife for children begin at 10:15 am.
The Birds of Prey show is scheduled to begin at 11:30 am.

Please sign up online so we know how many people to expect! www.charltonlibrary.org

Hosted by DMP Outdoors, a family-owned, Massachusetts company that encourages people of all ages to connect with the outdoors and nature by raising awareness, encouraging the wise use of natural resources and the protection of open space. This event is part of their "Giving Back Program." For more information on DMP Outdoors, visit their website: <https://www.dmpoutdoors.com>