BOSTON DUCK TOUR

with Phillips Old Colony House

Wednesday, June 21, 2017

As Paul Revere said, "The British are coming, the British are coming, one if by land, two if by sea." That's how we'll experience Boston today-- aboard a unique WWII amphibious DUCK for a fully narrated tour of Boston. We will experience the birthplace of freedom come alive before our eyes while enjoying a new and exciting adventure. Our excursion begins and ends at the Prudential Center.

We'll "cruise" past the domed State House, Boston Common, Old North Church, fashionable Newbury Street, Quincy Market and Hancock Tower.

As Boston unfolds before us, our conDUCKtor will be relating lots of little known facts and interesting insights about this unique and wonderful city.

Then it's time for "splashdown" as our conDUCKtor drives the DUCK into the Charles River for a breathtaking water side view of Boston. While on the river, we can sit back, relax, and enjoy a beautiful view of the city we won't get anywhere else. It's a ride of a lifetime.

We will dine at Phillips Old Colony House, a classic New England restaurant. Combining the decor of the English countryside, the restaurant features traditional New England fare, continental and contemporary specialities. Our menu offers a choice of:

Sliced Roast Sirloin with Forestiere Sauce

Boneless Breast of Chicken with White Mushroom Sauce

or Baked Fresh Boston Scrod with Seasoned Crumbs & Lemon Butter

includes: appetizer, vegetable, potato or rice, dessert and beverage

$92 (all taxes and gratuities included)
