The intimate theater is just a short stroll from the dining room. We will have reserved seating to enjoy some of the finest entertainment available. Today's show is The Foursome. The story is about Rick, Ted, Donnie, and Cameron who are home for their fifteenth college reunion. Together once again, they pretend to be loyal friends though they've been out of touch with each other since graduation. During the weekend, the men go out for a game of golf, and it is during this game that the four get caught up on each other's lives since their college days. The play is set on the eighteen tees of The Windemere Golf and Country Club.

What makes this play work, more than the storyline, are the well-timed jokes and the comic gifts of the cast. This rousing comedy tells us less about golf and a lot more about the follies of the male gender.

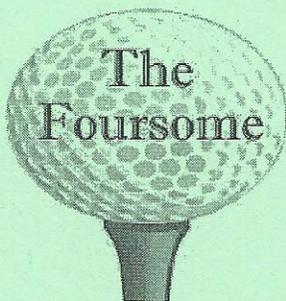

Following the show, it's back to our original table. The dining room has been transformed into a delightful Cabaret where the Company Members continue to entertain us with songs and laughter.
